Christian Appalachian Project

Dear Supporter,

What a difference you have made!

You might remember the story of Tina Edwards: Three weeks ago, she was living with a leaky roof, but wasn't able to fix it on her own.

Your generosity made it possible for our WorkFest volunteers to give the Edwards' home a new roof, drywall, and kitchen flooring. In the touching video below, Tina Edwards, mother of Annie, offers a heartfelt 'thank you'.

Christian Appalachian Project is doubly blessed. We are so grateful for supporters like you who provide the funds for home repair projects, as well as our amazing volunteers who worked many long days to make these repairs a reality.

Thank you and God bless you,

Guy Adams
President, Christian Appalachian Project
